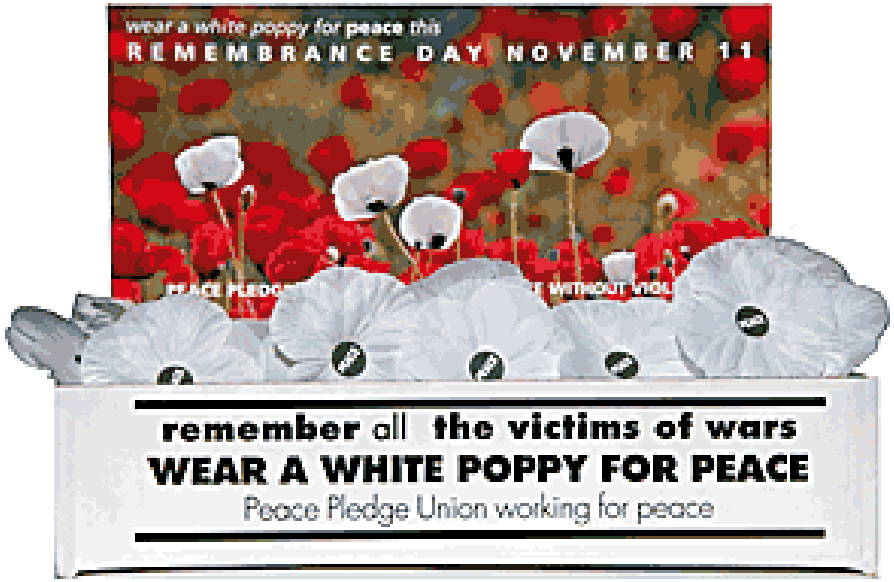
White Poppies For Remembrance 2016



Please use the order form overleaf to order your display box of 100 white poppies. These can be sold or given away at the Meeting House and/or made available to members, attenders and the general public. You can use them to make a wreath for Remembrance Sunday. Some Friends may also want to sell or give them away on street corners, on the High Street or outside a station or other public building.

For more information about the white poppies, see:
