

Annual Conference of Treasurers

Supporting our faith in the future

15 to 17 June 2018, The Hayes, Swanwick, Derbyshire

This conference is for area and local meeting treasurers and other holders of financial roles. It is for old hands and new. It is an opportunity to learn new skills and network with other treasurers.

There will be workshops and topical updates. Hear from the Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM) Treasurer, members of Quaker Stewardship Committee, and BYM staff supporting those in financial roles.

More information and registration

<https://forms.quaker.org.uk/act/>

Cost: £190

Closing date for registrations: 22 April 2018

Contact: Gabriel Cabrera, Events & Committee Services

gabrielc@quaker.org.uk

020 7663 1050

We encourage area meetings to pay for those in financial roles to attend this event.

Read on for more details about the programme.

Summary programme

Funding the work of Britain Yearly Meeting

Managing risk and preventing fraud

Setting a reserves policy

Updates from Quaker Stewardship Committee: following on from the lively debate at ACT 2017, this will include further discussion on the rules and guidance on giving to non-Quaker organisations.

Workshops

Help for new treasurers

Encouraging contributions

How to improve your accounts

Paying for help successfully: What is the role of the treasurer and what can you pay others to do for you?

As with previous years there will be opportunities to share ideas and ask questions.