

Quaker Voices

three recent issues

A bimonthly journal which aims to nourish the spiritual lives of Friends. Published by Quaker Life, each edition includes articles, poetry and artwork that share Friends' experiences of being Quaker.

Recent issues have included:

- On being a radical traditionalist by Harvey Gillman
- The spiritual work of depicting a humanitarian crisis by Karima Brooke
- Religion: Why bother with it? by Chris Kell
- Rebuilding a home, rebuilding hope by Myra Ford
- A Journey through strange lands by Samuel Donaldson

The annual subscription price for six issues is £22.50 for UK subscriptions and £38 for non-UK. Both prices include postage.

Bulk subscriptions of three or more to one address receive a 10% discount. Bulk subscriptions cannot be paid online.
