MRS NOAH'S POCKETS

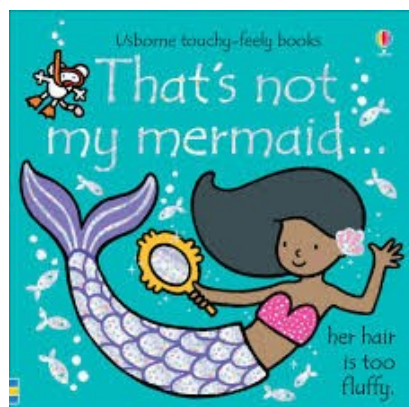

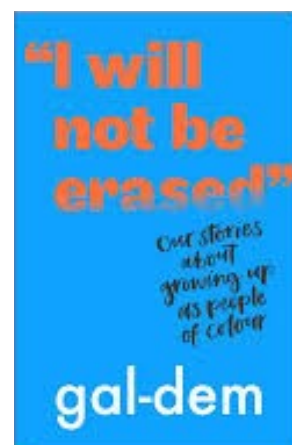

Jackie Morris & James Mayhew £12.99

"At last all were gathered inside the ark. It heaved with animals, large and small. Mrs Noah wore a brand-new coat, with a hood and a cape – and very deep pockets. Lots of pockets." When Mr Noah builds the ark, he makes two lists – one for all the animals who will come on board and one for those troublesome creatures he will leave behind. Meanwhile, Mrs Noah gets out her sewing machine and makes a coat with very deep pockets. Lots of pockets... A beautifully illustrated re-imagining of the well-known story to enchant readers and listeners of all ages.

I WILL NOT BE ERASED: Our stories about growing up as people of colour gal-dem £7.99

Fourteen joyous, funny and life-affirming essays about growing up from gal-dem's talented writers. gal-dem, the award-winning online and print magazine, is created by women and non-binary people of colour. In this thought-provoking and moving collection of fourteen essays, gal-dem's writers use raw material from their teenage years – diaries, poems and chat histories – to give advice to their younger selves and those growing up today. gal-dem have been praised by the Guardian for being "the agents of change we need", and these essays tackle important subjects including race, gender, mental health and activism, making this essential reading for any young person.

YAY! YOU'RE GAY! Now what? A Gay Boy's Guide to Life

Riyadh Khalaf £9.99

Yay! You're gay! Or maybe you're bi. Or maybe you just feel different... in time, that difference will become the greatest gift you could ask for. It will bring you love, a sense of identity, a new community and eventually the freedom to be yourself. In this personal, heartfelt go-to guide for young queer guys, YouTuber and presenter Riyadh Khalaf shares frank advice about everything from coming out to relationships, as well as interviews with inspirational queer role models, and encouragement for times when you're feeling low. There's a support section for family and friends written by Riyadh's parents and loads of hilarious, embarrassing, inspiring and moving stories from gay boys around the world. Packed with practical advice, this book contains chapters on labels, coming out, dealing with homophobia, crushes, sex ed, consent and finding your tribe.

HE'S NOT NAUGHTY! A Children's Guide to Autism Deborah Brownson £9.99

Taryn and Jake are best friends who have lots of similarities and lots of differences. One of the differences is that Jake has autism and Taryn doesn't, which means they can act differently sometimes. Taryn knows that people with autism are often mistaken for being naughty when it's actually a natural way for their brain to react. Fed up with everyone not understanding, Taryn decides to let the world know why Jake isn't naughty! This distinctively illustrated book is a quick and quirky way to explain to friends and family why children with autism behave the way they do. Unique visuals provide a great sense of what it's truly like to have autism, making this an ideal book for children aged 6-10.

LET'S MAKE YOGA MAGIC

Heather Leah & Sandie Sonke £14.99

Make yoga magic with the most beautiful and interactive kids yoga book out there! Pull the levers, turn the wheels and watch as 13 children come to life to act out 13 yoga poses and create other yoga magic. Kids will delight in seeing the sun rise over the mountain pose, boats float beneath the bridge pose and branches magnificently blossom when a child makes the tree pose. A perfect tool for instructing and inspiring little yogis of all ages.

A message from Friends House Library to all Meeting Librarians

We plan to update the series of guides for Quaker meeting librarians:

<https://www.quaker.org.uk/our-organisation/quaker-roles/records-custodians-librarians>.

Have you used the current guides and which (if any) were useful? Is there another topic you would like to see covered? Any suggestions on content, or layout? Any other comments? Please send them to us at PrintedCollections@quaker.org.uk as soon as possible.
