This workshop is for people in meetings working with children who wish to develop their skills and approaches or people who are considering working with children in meetings.

The cost of the workshop is £5 payable on the day. All participants should bring a packed lunch.

The aims of the workshop are:

- To encourage participants to consider how they relate to children within children's meeting
- To give participants the opportunity to share aspects of working in children's meeting that they find challenging
- To enable participants to think about ways of being and doing that will develop their children's meeting as a positive experience for children
- To help participants to develop their confidence in working with children's behaviour

By the end of the workshop participants will have:

- Considered how their children's meeting is structured and explored alternative approaches that might be helpful
- Identified some strategies to respond to the challenges of working with children in meeting
- Developed their skills in relating to children
- Developed their ability to structure and run children's meeting in a way that makes it a safe and enjoyable experience for all

Timing, booking information and venue:

The day starts with refreshments at 10.15am and ends at 4pm. We invite Friends to take part and ask that each person uses the booking form as places are limited.
