Unprogrammed worship

Sarah Fell Room – First floor

Every morning 08:45 to 09:15

Programmed/ semi-programmed worship

(Restaurant - basement)

Saturday 08:45 to 09:15:

All age worship. Bible story using Faith & Play and worship sharing.

A Bolivian Friend who visited us last year was passionate about the benefits of learning together as an all age community in worship. Come and explore this insight.

Led by Ian Marshall (Lancashire Central & North Area Meeting)

Sunday 08:45 to 09:15

A hymn, a scripture reading, a message related to the scripture, and some open (unprogrammed) worship.

Margaret Fraser will bring the prepared message. She is a member of The New Association of Friends; a group of meetings in Indiana, Michigan and Ohio affiliated to Friends United Meeting. She serves as interim pastor at Reedwood Friends Church, Portland, Oregon.

Monday 08:45 to 09:15

“Let all who are thirsty come”: semi-programmed worship using the biblical imagery of wa-ter as an invitation to a deeper life in the Spirit.

Led by Eden Grace of New England Yearly Meeting and this year’s Swarthmore Lecturer.
