Ages 6–8

- Lift-the-Flap Questions and Answers About Racism – by Jordan Akpojaro, illustrated by Ashley Evans
  Introduction to understanding racism. (6-8)
- My Skin, Your Skin – by Laura Henry-Allain, illustrated by Onyinye Iwu
  Celebrates diversity and inclusion (4-8)
- Coming to England – by Floella Benjamin
  A memoir for children about migration, belonging, and racism in Britain. (4-7)
- Freedom Soup – by Tami Charles
  A story of Haitian independence and family tradition. (5-9)

Ages 9–13

- Black and British: An Illustrated History – by David Olusoga, illustrated by Jake Alexander and Melleny Taylor
  An accessible introduction to Black British history, includes history of African Chattel enslavement
- Brilliant Black British History – by Kingsley Nebechi and Atinuke
  Profiles of influential Black figures across history.
- The Black Curriculum Legacies: Black British Pioneers- Lania Narjee
- Queen of Freedom – by Catherine Johnson
  A historical novel set during the African chattel enslavement.
- Freedom – by Catherine Johnson
  A historical novel set during the African chattel enslavement
- Man-Man and the Tree of Memories – by Yaba Badoe
  A powerful story about family, grief and memory (9+).
- Africa Is My Home: A Child of the Amistad – by Monica Edinger
  Historical book based on the true story of a child aboard the Amistad. (9+)
- Freedom Bound
  A historical graphic novel narrating Scotland's connection with African Chattel enslavement (13+)

Teen and Young Adults

- The Undefeated – by Kwame Alexander
  A poetic tribute to Black resilience and history.
- Me and White Supremacy – by Layla Saad (YA version)
  A guided reflection on examining privilege and systemic racism.

- (older Teenagers) Natives: Race and Class in the Ruins of Empire – by Akala
  A memoir and political reflection connecting British imperial history with present-day inequality.

Videos

- 06 Fireside Chats: Leonie Taylor with Esther Stanford-Xosei: 06 | Fireside Chat: Leonie Taylor with Esther Stanford-Xosei A discussion with Esther Stanford-Xosei who give a clear and detailed introduction to reparations
- After the Flood: the church, slavery and reconciliation- Documentary which charts the roots and legacies of the 18th century church's involvement in the transatlantic African chattel enslavement and shows the route to reconciliation.
- Avis Wanda McClinton: Quaker Slavery and Manumissions -Quaker Avis Wanda McClinton speaks about her work as a community liaison to Haverford College's "Manumitted: The People Enslaved by Quakers."

Podcasts

- A Quaker Take- On reparations: what are reparations? A Quaker Take podcast | Quakers in Britain
- A Quaker Take- On reparations: how can we make reparations meaningful? A Quaker Take podcast | Quakers in Britain
- Friends Journal Quakers- Quakers and Reparations Quakers and Reparations

Adults – History

- Black and British: A Forgotten History – by David Olusoga
  A major history of Britain's role in enslavement and empire.
- The Heart of the Race – by Beverley Bryan, Stella Dadzie and Suzanne Scafe
  Black women's lives and activism in Britain.
- How Europe Underdeveloped Africa – by Walter Rodney
  An analysis of colonialism's economic impact.
- The Black Jacobins – by C. L. R. James
  An account of the Haitian Revolution.
- Capitalism and Slavery – by Eric Williams
  Examines the relationship between enslavement and industrial capitalism.
- Staying Power: The History of Black People in Britain – A foundational, long-running history of Black presence in Britain from Roman times to the modern era
- The 18th Century Enslaving Industry: Lancaster Quakers involvement- Ann Morgan

Adults – Race and Racism

- Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People About Race – by Reni Eddo-Lodge
  An accessible starting point for understanding structural racism in Britain.
- Brit(ish): On Race, Identity and Belonging – by Afua Hirsch
  A personal and political exploration of British identity.
- Me and White Supremacy – by Layla Saad
  A practical guide to examining complicity in systems of racism.
- The Empire Strikes Back: Race and Racism in 70s Britain (1982)- Birmingham Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies.
  Critical analysis of structural racism and race in the Britain and the 'post-colonial' context

Faith / Quaker Perspectives

- Recovering Racists – by Idelette McVicker
  Dismantling white supremacy and reclaiming shared humanity.
- White Work and Reparative Genealogy – by Mary Watkins
  Reckoning with ancestral debt as a path to reparations.
- Race, Systemic Violence, and Retrospective Justice – by Harold D. Weaver Jr.
  A Quaker scholar-activist writing on race and racism
- Black Fire: African American Quakers on Spirituality and Human Rights – edited by Harold D. Weaver Jr., Paul Kriese, Stephen W. Angell and Anne Steere Nash