

Britain Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers)

Schedule of nominations

Compiled for Yearly Meeting,
Friends House, London, and online
27–30 May 2022

Proceedings

A number of documents will help us meet with hearts and minds prepared. These are the Proceedings of the Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) in Britain 2022.

The full set comprises:

1. Preparing for Yearly Meeting, including community guidelines and spiritual preparation,
2. Agenda and notes, with introductory material for Yearly Meeting and annual reports of Meeting for Sufferings, Quaker Stewardship Committee and other related bodies,
3. Testimonies, including index of epistles,
4. Trustees' annual report, including financial statements for the year ended December 2021,
5. Patterns of membership, including the 2021 tabular statement,
6. Minutes, which are distributed after the conclusion of Yearly Meeting.

All documents will be available online at www.quaker.org.uk/ym. Many Friends will read the documents online, but if you need printed documents, they will be in a printer-friendly PDF format. We ask Friends to print their own copies or to seek assistance from someone in their meeting. This will help us to save costs, especially while we are unable to print and send copies from Friends House.

If you require accessible documents, please request these when booking for Yearly Meeting Gathering. If these do not meet your accessibility needs, or the needs of someone you know, please email ym@quaker.org.uk.

Quakers share a way of life, not a set of beliefs. Quaker unity is based on shared understanding and a shared practice of silent worship – a communal stillness.

Quakers seek to experience God directly – internally, in relationships with others, and with the world. Local meetings for worship are open to all who wish to attend.

Quakers try to live with honesty and integrity. This means speaking truth to all, including people in positions of power. The Quaker commitment to peace arises from the conviction that love is at the heart of existence and that all human beings are unique and equal.

This leads Quakers to put faith into action by working locally and globally to change the systems that cause injustice and violent conflict.
