You can apply for a Quaker Peace and Social Witness (QPSW) grant of £100-£2000 to help you get started with your project or develop it fully.

Applications for 2018 are now open.

In recent years QPSW grants have supported the creation of biodiverse garden spaces, the development of local currencies, accommodation for destitute migrants, community workshops on low-carbon living, a play about the history of land rights and protest, and many other Quaker-led or Quaker-supported initiatives.

We'd love to fund your project this year!

- Please note, all applications need a minute of support from the relevant local or area meeting.
- The deadline for applications is 3 October 2017
- Successful applicants will be informed by the end of December 2017, and will receive the money by the end of January 2018.
