

“War and Conscience: Choices Then and Now”
Macclesfield Library, Jordangate SK10 1EE
Tuesday 16th – Saturday 27th February

A unique exhibition depicting choices in WW1 and choices today, to coincide with the centenary of the introduction of conscription: focussing on Macclesfield men and women whose conscience would not allow them to take up arms or serve in the military. Also featuring two Family Workshops and an Evening Performance.

Exhibition:

“War and Conscience: Choices Then and Now”
Upstairs in the Gallery during normal Library opening times
Running for two weeks from Tuesday 16th February

Family Workshop:

“The Power of Posters – Make Your Own”
Find out the role posters have played over the last century and then create your own to take home!
With the help of a local artist
Thursday 18th February 9.30am – 12 noon
Suitable for all the family – adults & children, minimum age 8 years
Tickets £4.50 per child, adults free (all children must be accompanied by an adult) Entry by ticket only. Tickets available from Macclesfield Visitor Information Centre from January or contact choices1916@outlook.com
All materials provided. Refreshments included.

Family Workshop:

“A Peaceful World”, story teller and collage craft
Thursday 18th February 1pm – 3.30pm
Suitable for all the family – adults & children, minimum age 5 years
Tickets £4.50 per child, adults free (all children must be accompanied by an adult) Entry by ticket only. Tickets available from Macclesfield Visitor Information Centre from January or contact choices1916@outlook.com
All materials provided: create and take away your own ‘peaceful world’ collage with the help of a local artist. Refreshments included.

Evening Performance:

“Out of the Silence” The story of Conscientious Objectors, based on their first-hand accounts, letters and diaries of World War One. With Simon Heywood and Shonaleigh. No children under 12 years.

Macclesfield Library, upstairs, Friday 26th February at 7.30pm
Tickets £6.50, incl. refreshments, available from Macclesfield Visitor Information Centre and Eventbrite from January, also on the door subject to availability.

Further information choices1916@outlook.com

East Cheshire Quakers