

You are invited to an intergenerational, restorative and invigorating day, focused on how Quakers do social action.

You might be new to Quakerism, or you might be looking for the spiritual nourishment of being with others who put their faith into action, like you.

Maybe you're a youth climate striker, or a caseworker witnessing the impact of government cuts, or a person peacefully resisting the arms trade. There will be something for everyone. Meet other Quakers, learn how Quaker Peace & Social Witness staff can support your activism, and develop your skills.

The event is free. Lunch and refreshments will be provided, and experienced volunteers will provide pastoral care to people under 18. Bursaries are available where travel costs are a barrier.

Registration closes Tuesday 15 October

Please email Lyndsay Burtonshaw at lyndsayb@quaker.org.uk with any questions. We hope to see you there!
