COURSE TUTORS

For those new to facilitation and for those with previous experience. These invigorating online sessions will help you understand groups. You'll explore theories and try out online facilitation and leadership skills. The activities will enable you to develop your confidence, understanding and skills alongside considering how to engage with aspects of facilitating Quaker groups.

Aims of the course:

- Understanding community.
- Exploring how groups form and how they work together.
- Considering how to plan for facilitation.
- Understanding the roles we take on in groups.
- Engaging with power and equality as a facilitator.
- Learning about facilitating Quaker groups.

COURSE TUTORS

Simon Best is the Head of Learning at Woodbrooke. He is passionate about creating opportunities for Quakers to learn individually and together.

Cat Waithaka is the Quaker Life Youth Participation Officer. She is committed to further opportunities for Young Friends and the wider Quaker community to engage with each other.

Alongside CYP team volunteers who have experience of working with facilitating and leading groups.
